Some of township neighbors met Monday night via zoom to discuss ways we can help Mr Biao Teng's family. (Reference to earlier posts regarding the harassment happening outside of the house every day for a period of time). The agreement is to not engage with those people so there is no audience. In parallel to find security experts to help ID the ring leaders and determine possible legal options.

Police is well aware of the issue.

Also, in the meeting Mr Biao Teng has been offered free office space to conduct his classes if he feels intimidated and the protestors make it impossible for him and his family to live a normal life. Thanks Yingchao Zhang for the offer.

The "ring leader" lives in the township and owns a Ferrari.

Still going though my video to see if I can find out more. 🤔👎 5

Joe Lewis he showed his driver's license to a friend next to me while hiding from me - since he claimed I'm a CCP spy and would report him. My friend said the address is Flushing, NY. However, it's possible for him to rent an apt here to make his daily commute easier. But he's definitely not a long term resident.

Yeah. My community is working on finding and translating the stream that they were working from- gonna take some time though but there are only a few places where that stream could have existed.

Can we help pay his water bill to allow his sprinklers to run all day long? Facing the sidewalk? Someone posted they cannot stand on the road?

on Tue Like Reply More

Alok Sharma

Donna, sprinkler is off the table at this point. The concern is that these people might get violent and damage the property. First thing is to have good security system/cameras to protect the life and property of the targeted family.

People really have to stop unironically recommending sprinklers.

We do need all the options on the table to choose from. Ultimately, it is the decision of Teng's family. We are here to support them, and hopefully get rid of these harassers soon.

Thanks ALL..disengage/ don't give them an audience but do the more important work of dismantling them. In other words: Don't take the bait. Thanks for sending- before I headed over again in protest! Gotta say, I am appreciating the deeper wisdom of our community members. Please keep us updated on how to offer support to Mr. Biao Teng and his family. Much gratitude for your efforts ❤️

on Tue Like Reply More

Well there are a few ways to easily confirm it with local dealers. Ferrari's are not flying off the shelves and even a smaller amount of individuals LIVE in West Windsor and have Ferrari's.

It was like my green mustang. I was the only person in Mercer County with a green mustang.

Joe Lewis, regardless their opinion and platform, the way they conducted themselves (I've not heard the curses words they used in Chinese in my 57-year life time), the constant harassment and intimidation to people who disagree with their ring leader, Mr. Wengui Guo, is below any human decency. Now they captured my name (I told them my name in hope to get theirs, but they'd not tell me back their names), they started attacking me on their website. Basically, whoever is in their way to harass their targeted dissidents will be grossly classified as CCP spies or "enemy". Insane beyond any logics or belief.

Is it helpful to pick up stuff his family needs? That way we could drop it off with them and they don't have to leave their house. ALTHOUGH NO ONE SHOULD HAVE TO BE FEARFUL OF LEAVING THEIR HOME.

Lisa Garwood asked me to let you know that she and Lauren are working directly with the Tengs. You can DM Lisa for more info, and if you are/have an attorney you'd like to share with her, please DM her.

Thank you. (She & Lauren have requested to be added to the group, but have not heard anything.

From Lisa Garwood: Good morning! Here's the update. Not good news, but if you could please post this on WW Peeps so everyone is on the same page. (Hopefully, Lauren and I will be given access today)

From Lauren:

I received the following message from my contact at the NJ ACLU, which reflects the answer I've received from every lawyer I've talked to. I don't believe any lawyer will help us at this point.

Hi, Lauren. As I understand it, the primary problem is protesters outside Teng Biao's home. I'm not sure what can be done about that. I'm not a lawyer, but there was a SCOTUS case called Masden that essentially allows this sort of protest. At least that's how I understand it. If the protesters aren't on his lawn or making threats, I'm not sure he can make them go away.

The ACLU has supported the right to protest in residential areas, so I don't think my lawyer colleagues can help.

I'd also flag that some elected officials in Hudson County have just secured a restraining order against protesters who've been protesting outside one of their private homes. Whether or not that restraining order gets upheld might help inform Teng Biao's options. I expect it will get challenged and thrown out.

Good luck! I hope these people will eventually lose interest.

Andrea
